

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA
SECOND DISTRICT

November 22, 2013

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 2013-7

Answer briefs in Anders appeals

Commencing immediately the court no longer will require the Attorney General to submit routinely an answer brief in any appeal in which counsel for the appellant files an Anders brief. Briefing by the appellee will be confined to circumstances in which the case has been assigned; the panel identifies an issue of possible merit; and an order has been issued requiring briefing on that issue.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Charles A. Davis', is written over a horizontal line. The signature is stylized and cursive.
